2.4.4. Measures taken by the institution for faculty retention

The following are the some of the policy measures to encourage the Faculty for a long-term career at Vidyodaya Law College, Tumakuru.

Recognition of qualified faculties: The institution gives importance to the educational qualification of the faculty and maintains the standard prescribed by the UGC, KSLU and BCI with communication skill.

Encouragement to improve the academic profile: The management always encourages and supports the faculty to undertake higher education, research studies etc. to upgrade their academic profile. The institution follows the precedence in academic matters and if needed the experienced faculties are consulted to seek suggestions and are implemented to achieve a standard of excellence.

Financial safeguards: The Institution being an aided, ensures to secure pay scales of its faculty as per the UGC norms. The faculty who are qualified as per UGC/KSLU/BCI norms are paid with UGC pay scale. In case of delay in salary, management secures the faculty with advance pay.

- 1. Increments- the faculty are ensured for annual increments as per the existing policy of the government/management.
- 2. Leave: The institution maintains a standard in leave policy. It follows the state government policy in entitling Earned leave/casual leave/maternity leave/paternity leave/medical leave to its employees.

- 4. The faculty are promoted to next higher grades as per the Government as well as management policies from time to time.
- 5. Welfare meetings with management: The institution organizes welfare meetings of its employees with the management that provides an opportunity to raise their concerns if any and resolved by the management based on the priority and requirement.
- 6. The Institution monitors the course and service commitments consistently to ensure the welfare of the faculty.
- 7. The Institution examines data for feasible workload of the faculty, appointments, promotions, resignations to analyse if any disparity or biases present to review the decision-making processes.
- 8. The faculty are provided with resources and facilitates networking opportunities for their betterment.
- 9. The policies are implemented to meet faculty needs at the best and by consideration on an individual basis.
- 10. The faculties participate in institutions governance, encouraged for their academic development and also provided maximum support in updating their teaching practices.
