ABOUT THE UNIVERSITY:
 Karnataka State Law University was established in the State of Karnataka in 2009, with the avowed purpose of providing quality legal education. It is only one of its kind and is the single largest University in the country, affiliating 100 law colleges and running its own Law School at the main campus in Hubballi. It is giving all efforts to professionally orient students by including appropriate components for the promotion of legal education in Karnataka.

VISION OF THE UNIVERSITY:
 "To transform Karnataka State a legally conscious society, by providing quality legal education that is professionally competent and socially relevant so as to realize the constitutional primordial goal of social, economic and political justice and secure human rights to every man. Strive to promote the culture of law and justice in all institutions of state, non-state organisations and every individual by providing informal legal education, training and legal education. Above all, inculcate in everyone a spirit of high moral and ethical values." In this endeavour, to realise the vision for excellence in professional legal education and research, the University is putting in untiring efforts through academic and co-curricular activities.

ABOUT THE CONFERENCE:
 Constitution is an organic document enumerating a body of fundamental principles and institutions guiding the affairs of a State. The Constitution of India is the supreme law of the land and has always adapted itself to meet the needs of the society at all times. Therefore, it has always been an instrument of social transformation. The Fundamental rights enshrined in the Constitution guarantee basic rights and fundamental freedoms to all. When it comes to unenumerated rights they are nothing but basic rights inferred from other rights, that are implied within the framework of the Constitution. Through the pro-active role of the judiciary, they are given wide interpretation touching upon different arenas close to different dimensions of human rights jurisprudence.

CALL FOR PAPERS:
 Academicians, research scholars, legal practitioners, members of professional bodies and students are invited to contribute papers on topics related to the theme of the conference. All papers submitted to the conference will be subjected to peer review. The decision of the reviewers is final and binding. Selected papers will be published in a Book with ISBN number.
