1. ABOUT INTERNAL QUALITY ASSURANCE CELL (IQAC):

INTRODUCTION:

The National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC) is an autonomous institution of the University Grants Commission (UGC). NAAC proposes that every accredited institution should establish an Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) as a post accreditation quality sustenance measure and as a first step towards institutionalization of quality enhancement initiatives. As per the guidelines provided by NAAC, Vidyodaya Law College, Tumakuru established IQAC on 06-02-2017. The main objective of the Cell is to provide quality of Legal Education and ensures continuous review and upgrading of teaching, library, office services and infrastructural facilities. It develops a system for consistent and conscious improvement in the overall performance of the institution. The IQAC provides annual blue print designing curricular and co-curricular activities to be conducted throughout the academic year and also monitors various programs for the enrichment competency of teaching staff and student's performance. IQAC also reviews all the activities of the institution and prepares plans.

3. ABOUT THE TWO BEST PRACTICES:

IQAC believes that, the proper learning of law requires an integrated approach along with several kinds related activities to promote above interests. Following are the examples of Best Practices suggested by IQAC which are successfully adopted and followed by the college.

Best Practices -

1. Students to Student Mentorship:

IQAC suggested to introduce and to adopt 'Students to Student Mentorship' programme to train Junior students academically and to engage them in cultural and other co-curricular activities by their immediate senior students.

Under this programme, a senior student will be allotted Ten junior student and it will continues throughout the program or till that senior student will pass out of the college.

2. Nyayah Abhay Hast –

IQAC suggested to introduce another programme called as 'Nyayah Abhay Hast' in the college to expose our students to various legal aspects and to train them practically to handle legal issues of the society along with the study of law. In this programme, students are going to take up a specific issues in a legal literacy programme at different places or different issues which are varying from place to place depending on the needs of that locality. This programme is fulfilled through Legal Literacy Programmes, Legal Aid Clinic, Students Participating in Lok Adalat and Para Legal Activities etc.
